EXAMINATION COMMITTEE

FUNCTIONS

The committee will meet at least 6 times a semester in order to discuss the routine procedures of evaluation and special issues if any

- The Committee will see to it that evaluation procedures are carried out in the best interests of the realization of objectives of the teaching / learning process.
- The Committee will scrutinize the various internal and external assessment procedures adopted by the teachers and recommend reforms in examinations and the central valuation of answer scripts.
- If the students experience any difficulty in the time tables for tests and semester examinations fixed by the College, it is the Examination Committee that is to look into the matter and recommend changes to be effected by the Principal.
- It is the responsibility of the committee to see to it that the Awards Committee is convened just after the valuation of the answer scripts, so that the results of the B.Ed. M.Ed. and M.Phil. Students would be announced at an early date.
- The committee will see to it that, the mark statements of semester Examinations will be issued in time and the consolidated mark statements at an early date to facilitate registering of the students in the employment office / diocesan employment center.
